Fall 2020 Classes

MONDAY 10 -11 – WEBINAR Session – September 14

Tuition $5.00

101 - ELECTION 2020 AND THE STATE OF AMERICAN POLITICS

UConn Professor Herbst will discuss the current state of national politics, bringing a variety of tools and theories from Political Science and Sociology. Depending on the nature of political activity in September, she will focus on particularly important aspects of the presidential election in progress as well as the state of the presidency. There is no question that we are living in one of the most uniquely divisive and fraught moments in American politics, and behavior of our elected officials has been idiosyncratic.

THURSDAY 10-11 - WEBINAR Session – September 17

Tuition $5.00

#401 - THE TOWER OF BABEL

In this session Yale Professor Dr. Joel Baden will look at the story of the Tower of Babel – only nine verses in the book of Genesis, but verses that have resonated in art and the popular imagination for millennia. What was the Tower, where did this story come from, and what does it mean?"

MONDAY 10 -11 - WEBINAR Session – September 21

Tuition $5.00

#102 -"OH, THERE'S NOTHING HALFWAY": MEREDITH WILLSON'S THE MUSIC MAN

Yale Professor Dr. Daniel Egan returns to LIR to discuss Meredith Willson's The Music Man as a well-nigh perfect portrait of small town America and how we sometimes discover our best selves even as we resist change and insist on staying put. In anticipation of the show's revival on Broadway, we will explore the music, the characters and the message of this classic piece of American Musical Theater.

WEDNESDAY 10-11 - WEBINAR Session - September 23

Tuition $5.00

#301 - AN IMPORTANT TOPIC

Dr. Kevin Buterbaugh, professor of Political Science at Southern CT State College, defers his choice of topic until near presentation time when he will select an important current event.

To Register or for Catalog updates go to: <https://www.lirstamford.org/>

TUESDAY 10-11 - WEBINAR Session - September 29

Tuition $5.00

#201 – MICHAEL STERN AND THE STAMFORD SYMPHONY

Michael Stern, new Music Director of the Stamford Symphony will share his vision of the role of the modern symphony in the community. He will discuss his experiences as well as his plans for programming and community engagement.

FRIDAY 10-11 - WEBINAR Session - October 2

Tuition $5.00

#501 - THE RISE OF THE VIRTUOSO

Frantz Liszt-Paganini-Rachmaninoff-such names are intertwined with performance genius. During this program, musicologist and music theorist, Dr. Gil Harel will discuss the intricacies of what constitutes a “virtuoso”, and what separates composers from true performers. In looking at this repertoire, we will listen to some of the most difficult music ever written. Playing such works requires a special type of musician-one whose impact on audiences is (with the aid of social media) arguably more profound than ever.

MONDAY 10 -11 - WEBINAR Session – October 5

Tuition $5.00

#103 – CELEBRATING 500 YEARS OF LEONARDO AT THE LOUVRE

In this lecture Columbia University Adjunct Professor Dr. Page Knox offers a virtual tour of the extremely popular exhibition celebrating the 500th anniversary of Leonardo da Vinci’s death at the Louvre. Shattering attendance records, the show was a tour de force, as it brought together over 100 paintings, sculptures and drawings by Leonardo along with radiographs of all of his major works, and resulted in many new interpretations of some of the most beloved works in the history of art.

WEDNESDAY 10-12 - WEBINAR Session - October 7

Tuition $5.00

#302 UNDERSTANDING INDONESIA: THE WORLD’S FOURTH LARGEST COUNTRY

AICC President Wayne Forrest, President of the American Indonesian Chamber of Commerce and one of America’s foremost experts on Indonesia will help us understand the world’s fourth largest country. Indonesia is home to much of the world’s rain forests, most active volcanoes and creatures such as the orangutan and the Komodo dragon. It has the largest population of Muslims in the world. He will introduce us to Indonesian culture.

To Register or for Catalog updates go to: <https://www.lirstamford.org/>

TUESDAY 10-11 - WEBINAR Session - October 13

Tuition $5.00

#202 - IMPORTANT CONTEMPORARY BLACK ARTISTS YOU WANT TO KNOW ABOUT

Dr. Beth Gersh-Nešić, Director of the New York Arts Exchange will discuss Black artists from the US and abroad who are creating some of the most exciting art inside and outside traditional exhibition venues. This slide lecture with video clips offers you a chance to learn about three: Kara Walker (US), Kehinde Wiley (US-President Obama National Gallery portrait) and Yinka Shonibare (UK-Nigeria).

THURSDAY 10-11 - WEBINAR Session – October 15

Tuition $5.00

#402 - PARTING OF THE WAYS

About two thousand years ago, Judaism and Christianity began separating and pursued the path to become two different religions. This Parting took place amidst specific political, social, and spiritual environments. We'll examine the historical circumstances that underlie the Parting to gain a deeper understanding of the relationship between these two religions. Robert Abrams is a Jewish studies educator in the Greater Fairfield County area.

MONDAY 10 -11 - WEBINAR Session – October 19

Tuition $5.00

#104 - JAPAN: POSSIBLE FUTURES

Japanese society is more deeply divided today than at any point since the end of WWII. This talk will consider various competing interests often masked in international coverage. Dr. Alexis Dudden, History Professor at UConn, Storrs and the author of several books, has lived in Japan and South Korea

WEDNESDAY 10-12 - WEBINAR Session - October 21

Tuition $5.00

#303 - ECONOMIC TRANSFORMATIONS ARISING FROM THE CORONAVIRUS PANDEMIC

Dr. Mark LeClair of Fairfield University will address the significant economic changes brought about by the shutdown of the U.S. economy in March due to the spread of the Coronavirus. While some economic transitions will be temporary, others are likely to persist into the medium- and long-term, including a boom in distance-learning, a reversal of the trend towards urbanization, declining ridership on public transportation, and a rethinking of supply-chain management. In addition to having major impacts on employment, these changes will cause major disruptions to public policy, international trade and how businesses operate.
